Board Charter (the Charter)

Bravura Solutions Limited and its subsidiaries (the Company)

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose of Charter

This is the Charter of the Board of the directors of Company (the Board). The Charter governs the operations of the Board. It sets out the Board's role and responsibilities, composition, structure and membership requirements.

1.2 Role of Board

The Board is responsible for the overall operation and stewardship of the Company and, in particular, for: the long term growth and profitability of the Company; the strategies, policies and financial objectives of the Company; monitoring the implementation of those policies, strategies and financial objectives; instilling the Company's values; and the other responsibilities set out below.

In performing the responsibilities set out in this Charter, the Board should act at all times in a manner designed to create and continue to build sustainable value for shareholders and in accordance with the duties and obligations imposed on them by the Company's constitution and by law.

1.3 Review of Charter

The Board must review and reassess this Charter at least annually and, if required, make any amendments to the Charter.

2. Roles and responsibilities of the Board

2.1 Strategy

The role of the Board in respect of strategy includes:

- a) providing input to, and approval of, the Company's strategic direction and budgets as developed by management;
- b) directing, monitoring and assessing the Company's performance against strategic and business plans, to determine if appropriate resources are available; and
- c) approving and monitoring capital management and major capital expenditure, acquisitions and divestments.

2.2 Risk management & reporting

The role of the Board in respect of risk management and reporting includes:

- a) identifying the principal risks of the Company's business and ensuring the Company has in place an appropriate risk management framework and establishing the acceptable levels of risk within which the Board expects the management of the Company to operate which may include:
 - i) economic, environmental and social sustainability risks;
 - ii) operational, financial and strategic risks; and
 - iii) contemporary and emerging risks such as conduct risk, digital disruption, cyber-security, privacy and data breaches, sustainability and climate change;
- b) establishing the acceptable levels of risk within which the Board expects the management of the Company to operate, and analysing whether the Company is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board;

- c) reviewing and ratifying the Company's systems of internal compliance and control, risk management frameworks and legal compliance systems, to determine the integrity and effectiveness of those systems; and
- d) approving and monitoring material internal and external financial and other reporting, including:
 - i) periodic reporting to shareholders, the ASX and other stakeholders;
 - ii) overseeing the external audit; and
 - iii) overseeing the Company's processes for making timely and appropriate disclosure of all material information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities.

In accordance with paragraph 2.6 of this Charter, the Board may refer some or all of these functions to the Audit & Risk Committee for detailed consideration and action.

2.3 Relationship with management

The role of the Board in relation to management includes:

- a) appointment and removal of the Managing Director or Chief Executive Officer (CEO) (or equivalent) and the Company Secretary;
- b) ratifying the appointment and removal of senior executives (which includes all executives who report directly to the Managing Director or CEO);
- c) approving the Company's remuneration policies and framework and satisfying itself that they are aligned with the Company's purpose, values, strategic objectives and risk appetite and that the remuneration and conditions of service of senior executives are appropriate;
- d) establishing and monitoring executive succession planning with diversity being a relevant consideration;
- e) delegating the day to day decision making and implementation of Board approved strategy to the Managing Director or CEO;
- f) setting specific limits of authority for management;
- g) satisfying itself that an appropriate framework exists to facilitate reporting of relevant information by management to the Board; and
- h) where required, challenging management so as to hold it to account.

2.4 Monitoring of performance

The role of the Board in respect of performance monitoring includes:

- a) approving criteria for assessing performance of senior executives and monitoring and evaluating their performance (including appropriate background checks on senior executives and directors undertaken by the Company);
- b) undertaking an annual evaluation of the performance of the Board, each Board Committee and individual directors of the Company (the Directors), comparing their performance with the requirements of this Charter, relevant Board committee charters (the Board Committee Charters) and the reasonable expectations of individual Directors;
- c) appointing a suitable non executive director to conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of the Chair, including the canvassing of views of the other directors;
- d) where appropriate, engaging external facilitators to conduct its performance evaluations;
- e) each year following the performance review, the Chair should establish the goals and objectives of the Board for the upcoming year and effect any amendments to this Charter and any Board Committee Charter considered necessary or desirable; and

- f) with the assistance of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, review the Board's skills matrix to ensure all skills needed to address existing and emerging business and governance issues are covered;

2.5 Corporate governance

The role of the Board in respect of corporate governance includes:

- a) selecting and appointing the Board chair, and if the Company has one, the deputy chair or senior independent director;
- b) approving the Company's statement of values and Code of Conduct;
- c) ensuring ethical behaviour and compliance with the Company's own governing documents, including the Company's Code of Conduct; and
- d) monitoring and evaluating the Company's compliance with its corporate governance standards.

2.6 Board Committees

The role of the Board includes:

- a) establishing such committees of the Board as may be appropriate including the following Board Committees:
 - i) Audit & Risk Management Committee; and
 - ii) Remuneration & Nomination Committee; and
- b) adopting Charters setting out the membership, responsibilities and reporting obligations of each Board Committee and evaluating the performance of the Board Committees.

2.7 Shareholders meetings

The role of the Board includes calling a meeting of shareholders in accordance with the Company's constitutions. In particular and with respect to Bravura Solutions Limited, all substantive resolutions at a shareholders meeting should be decided by a poll rather than a show of hands, in accordance Bravura Solutions Limited's constitution (the Constitution) and the Applicable Laws (as defined in the Constitution).

2.8 Other

The role of the Board also includes performing such other functions as prescribed by law.

3. Board composition and related matters

3.1 Board size

The Constitution provides that the number of Directors must at any time be no more than 10 and no less than 3.

3.2 Board composition

The Board should comprise:

- a) a majority of people who are independent¹ Directors; and
- b) people with a mix of skills and diversity of backgrounds to enable the Board to discharge its duties effectively.

3.3 Chair

The Chair of the Board should be independent and should not hold the role of CEO or Managing Director (or equivalent). The Chair should:

- a) lead the Board;
- b) facilitate the effective contribution of all directors;
- c) promote constructive and respectful working relationships between directors, senior management and the Board;
- d) communicate the views of the Board and senior management to the Company's security holders and to the public; and
- e) oversee and facilitate board, committee and senior management evaluation reviews and succession planning.

The Chair will also be responsible for approving board agendas and ensuring that adequate time is available for discussion of all agenda items, including strategic issues.

3.4 Company secretary

The Company Secretary will:

- a) be appointed and removed by the Board;
- b) report to and be accountable to the Board, through the Chair of the Board, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board and Board Committees; and
- c) perform the role in accordance with Recommendation 1.4 of the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th edition) of the ASX Corporate Governance Council.

3.5 Independent directors

An independent director is a non-executive director who is free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the entity and its security holders generally.

The corporate governance guidelines provide certain factors relevant to assessing the independence of directors and outline relationships which may affect independent status.² They provide that when determining the independent status of a director the board should consider, by way of examples, whether the director:

- a) is, or has been, employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another group member, and there has not been a period of at least three years between ceasing such employment and serving on the Board;
- b) receives performance-based remuneration (including options or performance rights) from, or participates in an employee incentive scheme of the entity;

² The factors relevant to assessing the independence of a director are set out in Box 2.3 under recommendation 2.3 of the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th edition).

- c) is, or has been within the last three years, in a material business relationship (eg as a supplier, professional adviser, consultant or customer) with the Company or other group member, or an officer of, or otherwise associated with, someone with such a relationship;
- d) is, represents, or is or has been within the last three years an officer or employee of, or professional adviser to, a substantial holder;
- e) has close personal ties with a person who falls within any of the categories described above; or
- f) has been a director of the Company for such a period that his or her independence from management and substantial holders may have been compromised.

In each case, the materiality of the interest, position or relationship needs to be assessed by the Board to determine whether it might interfere, or might reasonably be seen to interfere, with the director's capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the entity as a whole rather than in the interests of an individual's security holder or other party.

The Board will:

- a) regularly review the independence of each Director in light of interests disclosed and will disclose any change to ASX, as required by the ASX Listing Rules; and
- b) review the independence of any director who has served in that position for more than 10 years to confirm that their independent status can be maintained.

3.6 Material business relationship

A professional adviser, consultant, supplier or customer will be considered to have a material business relationship with the Company if:

- a) from the perspective of the director, the business relationship is significant (directly or indirectly) to their own circumstances; or
- b) from the Company's perspective, the business relationship generates revenue or expenses (to the Company) of 5% or more of the Company's total revenues or expenses, as applicable.

3.7 Board judgement that a director remains independent

- a) The Board may consider a director to be independent notwithstanding that the Director has an interest or relationship set out in Section 3.5.
- b) In these circumstances, the Board will take into account:
 - i) the nature and extent of the interest or relationship;
 - ii) the type of transactions that are normally entered into between the Company and the other party, the nature of the transactions and whether the Director has been personally involved in negotiating the terms and conditions of any of the transactions; and
 - iii) any other matters the Board considers relevant to its assessment.
- c) If the Board determines that, notwithstanding the interest or relationship, the Director is independent, the Board will disclose its reasons for this assessment and the interest or relationship of the Director in the annual corporate governance statement.

3.8 Appointing new directors

When considering the appointment of a person as a Director, the Board will:

- a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing the person, or putting the person forward to shareholders as a candidate for election as a Director. These checks will usually include the candidate's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history;

- b) ask the person to provide the Board, or the Remuneration & Nomination Committee, with all information considered appropriate by the Board, including details of commitments that will be in addition to those they will undertake if elected or re-elected as a non-executive director of the Company and a statement that they will have sufficient time to fulfil their responsibilities as a director of the Company; and
- c) provide shareholders with:
 - i) confirmation that the checks referred to above have been undertaken and, if applicable, any information of concern revealed by the checks; and
 - ii) all other material information in the possession of the Company relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a person as a Director, including whether the person will qualify as an independent Director.

Where checks being undertaken regarding a new director will take a significant amount of time, the Board may provisionally appoint a person in the role, or may put a resolution to members electing a director, subject to receipt of satisfactory checks. In these circumstances, the Board must receive an unequivocal undertaking from the director that they will resign should any outstanding check be considered unsatisfactory by the Company.

4. Management and delegation

4.1 Managing Director and management

The Managing Director (or equivalent) is responsible for running the day to day affairs of the Company under delegated authority from the Board and to implement the policies and strategy set by the Board. In carrying out the managing director's responsibilities, the Managing Director (or equivalent) must ensure that the Board is provided with accurate information in a timely and clear manner and ensure all reports to the Board present a true and fair view of the Company's financial condition and operational results.

4.2 Delegation to management

The role of management is to support the Managing Director (or equivalent) and implement the running of the general operations and financial business of the Company, in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board. The delegated authority includes responsibility for:

- a) developing business plans, budgets and strategies for the Company for consideration by the Board and, to the extent approved by the Board, implementing these plans, budgets and strategies;
- b) operating the Company's business within the parameters set by the Board from time to time and keeping the Board informed of material developments in the Company's business;
- c) in respect of proposed transactions, commitments or arrangements that exceed the parameters set by the Board, referring such matters to the Board for its consideration and approval;
- d) identifying and managing operational and other risks and, where those risks could have a material impact on the Company's businesses, formulating strategies for managing these risks for consideration by the Board;
- e) implementing the policies, processes and codes of conduct approved by the Board; and
- f) managing the Company's current financial and other reporting mechanisms and control and monitoring systems to ensure that these mechanisms and systems function effectively and capture all relevant material information on a timely basis.

4.3 Senior executives

The Company will have:

- a) a written agreement with each person appointed as a senior executive of the Company setting out the terms of their appointment; and

- b) a process for ensuring that the performance of senior executives of the Company are reviewed at least annually.

When considering the employment or appointment of a person as a senior executive, the Board (or its delegate) will undertake appropriate checks before employing or appointing the person. These checks will usually include the candidate's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.

5. Other matters

5.1 Protocols where a director has a conflict of interest

From time to time a director may have a conflict of interest. To help Directors manage any real or potential conflicts the Board has developed protocols setting out the structures and procedures to be followed with the aim of ensuring that the consideration of matters by the Board and any Board committees is undertaken free from any actual influence or appearance of influence from persons with conflicts of interest, and that the disclosure of the Company's confidential information is to be subject to appropriate corporate governance controls. Those protocols are set out in Annexure A.

5.2 Independent Professional Advice for Directors

- a) Directors may obtain independent professional advice, at the Company's cost, in carrying out their responsibilities.
- b) It will be appropriate to obtain independent professional advice where:
 - i) the issue or recommendation in question is one which the Director reasonably considers, after consulting with the Board or the Chair of the Board, is of a character that makes obtaining independent advice appropriate; and
 - ii) the Board or Chair, following such consultation consents to the obtaining of such advice.
- c) Independent professional advice can be obtained without the involvement of the Company's management where the Board or the Chair considers it appropriate to do so.
- d) A suitable qualified expert in the appropriate field should be instructed. Prior to instructing the expert, the Director should advise the Board or Chair of the fee payable which must be reasonable having regard to the nature of the advice sought and the fees charged by comparable experts.
- e) All instructions to the expert must be in writing specifying the party instructing and the capacity in which that party is acting and the party to whom the advice is to be addressed.
- f) Except in circumstances of competing interests between the Directors or the Director and the Company, a copy of the advice, the letter of instruction, and all materials which accompanied the letter must be provided to the Board.

5.3 Terms of appointment of Directors

- a) All Directors are expected to continue as Directors only for so long as they have the confidence of their fellow Board members and the confidence of the Company's shareholders.
- b) In accordance with the Constitution of the Company, no Director except a Managing Director will hold office for a continuous period in excess of three years or past the third annual general meeting following the Director's appointment, whichever is the longer, without submitting for re-election.
- c) The Company will have a written agreement with each person appointed as a Director setting out the terms of their appointment.

5.4 Inconsistency with the Company's constitution

To the extent that there is any inconsistency between this Charter and the Company's constitution, the constitution will prevail.

5.5 Adoption of Charter and Board review

This Charter (including its annexures) was adopted by the Board on 31 October 2022, and takes effect from that date and replaces any previous charter in this regard.

Classification: External

The Board will review this Charter periodically. The Company Secretary will communicate any amendments to employees as appropriate.

Annexure A (Board Protocols - Conflicted Directors)

1. Background

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of these protocols is to set out the structures and procedures which have been put in place by the Board of the Company to ensure that the consideration of matters by the Board and any Board committees is undertaken free from any actual influence or appearance of influence from persons with conflicts of interest, and that the disclosure of the Company's confidential information is to be subject to appropriate corporate governance controls.

1.2 Directors duties

Annexed to these protocols is:

- a) an outline of duties of directors in relation to the disclosure of interests and avoiding conflicts; and
- b) a discussion of certain conflicts which may arise with nominee directors.

Nothing in these protocols is intended to limit in any way the duties owed to the Company by the directors of the Company (Directors).

2. Disclosure of information to Directors

2.1 Directors disclosure of interests

Directors must at all times comply with their duties and obligations as directors of the Company under statute, common law and the Company's constitution to disclose certain interests to the Board and avoid conflicts of interest. The duties of the Directors also include a duty of confidentiality owed to the Company. An outline of certain duties and obligations of Directors is set out in Annexure B to these protocols.

2.2 Review of information before disclosure to directors

Before any information is circulated by the Company's management to the Board or any Board committee, it must first be provided to the Company Secretary (Probity Officer) who will determine whether the disclosure of that information to any of the Directors may give rise to a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest (a conflict) in relation to one or more of the Directors. Information which must first be provided to the Probity Officer includes any agendas or papers for Board meetings or Board committee meetings and any documents generated internally or by the Company's advisors. The Chair may, as appropriate, make certain senior executives and management of the Company aware of this requirement.

In making that determination in respect of a particular Director, the Probity Officer may consult with the Chair of the Board or, in the event that disclosure of the information to the Chair may give rise to a conflict, the Deputy Chair of the Board. If the Chair or the Deputy Chair (as applicable) considers it appropriate, he or she may establish a committee comprising of those Directors who do not have a conflict for the purposes of making the determination (Independent Directors).

The Chair or Deputy Chair (as applicable), or any committee of Independent Directors established by the Chair or Deputy Chair, may also for the purposes of making the determination:

- a) request further information from the relevant Director; and/or
- b) seek advice from the Company's legal or other advisors.

3. Procedures

3.1 Procedures to be followed before board meeting

Before notice of any matter to be considered by the Board or a Board committee (Relevant Matter) is circulated to Directors, the procedure set out in paragraph 2.2 of these protocols must be adopted for the purpose of determining whether the involvement of any of the Directors in the Board's or Board committee's consideration of that Relevant Matter would give rise to a conflict.

3.2 Exclusion of conflicted director

If the Board or a Board committee is required to consider a Relevant Matter and it has been determined in accordance with paragraph 2.2 of these protocols that the involvement of a Director (Conflicted Director) in the Board's consideration of the Relevant Matter, or a Board committee's consideration of the Relevant Matter, would give rise to a conflict, then the Conflicted Director:

- a) must not receive any information about the Relevant Matter; and
- b) is not entitled to participate in any discussions regarding, nor take part in any decision-making process in relation to, the Relevant Matter, unless the Independent Directors make a determination under paragraph 3.3 of these protocols.

3.3 Inclusion of conflicted director on limited basis

After following the procedures set out in paragraph 2.2 of these protocols, depending on the nature of the conflict or potential conflict and the application of the particular facts, the Independent Directors may decide that the Conflicted Director can:

- a) receive part of the information in respect of the Relevant Matter;
- b) receive redacted versions of information distributed to the Board in respect of the Relevant Matter; or
- c) participate in the discussions regarding the Relevant Matter but not to vote on resolutions covering the Relevant Matter.

3.4 Procedures where conflicted director excluded

If the Relevant Matter is to be considered at a Board meeting or Board committee meeting and a determination is made under paragraph 3.2 of these protocols (and not under paragraph 3.3 of these protocols):

- a) the Conflicted Director may only receive modified versions of the agenda and other papers circulated to Directors in respect of that meeting which exclude all information relating to the Relevant Matter;
- b) the Conflicted Director may attend the meeting provided that the Conflicted Director excuses himself or herself from the meeting during any discussion of the Relevant Matter and takes no part in any decision making process in relation to the Relevant Matter;
- c) the Independent Directors must not disclose to the Conflicted Director any information relating to the Relevant Matter including the content of any relevant discussions at Board meetings and any other relevant discussions, negotiations or agreements;
- d) the Company Secretary will prepare minutes of all meetings of the Board and circulate those minutes to the members of the Board. However, if the Relevant Matter was considered at a meeting, the Conflicted Director will only be provided with a modified version of the minutes of that meeting which excludes those minutes relating to the Board's consideration of the Relevant Matter;
- e) the Probity Officer will be responsible for establishing and implementing appropriate measures to ensure that the Conflicted Director does not have access to email or any other folders where any documents or other information relating to the Relevant Matter are stored or to any relevant hard copy documents (and if requested by an Independent Director, the Probity Officer will report to the Board on the methodology employed to achieve this result);

- f) if the Conflicted Director acquires any information about the Relevant Matter in his or her capacity as a Director which is not publicly available, the Conflicted Director must keep that information confidential in accordance with the duties owed by the Conflicted Director to the Company.

3.5 Compliance with protocols

Each Director:

- a) must use all reasonable efforts to ensure that each person to whom these protocols apply complies with the protocols;
- b) must notify the Chair promptly if the Director becomes aware of any circumstances which, or which are likely to, result in a breach of these protocols, giving sufficient details of those circumstances to the Chair so that remedial action may be taken; and
- c) acknowledges that if these protocols are breached, the Company reserves the right to at any time terminate the involvement of the relevant Director, or any associate or involved person, in the Relevant Matter.

These protocols do not limit any other rights that the Company may have against a Director in respect of any breach of any legal or contractual obligations of a Director.

Annexure D (Disclosures of interests and conflicts of interest)

1. Statutory duty to disclose material personal interest

Subject to certain exceptions, a director of a company who has a material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the company must give the other directors notice of the interest (refer to section 191 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act)).

2. Restrictions on attendance and voting

Unless the other directors approve, a director of a public company who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a directors' meeting must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting or vote on the matter (refer to section 195 of the Corporations Act).

3. Standing notice

A director who has an interest in a matter may give the other directors standing notice of the nature and extent of the interest in the matter (refer to section 192 of the Corporations Act). The standing notice may be given at any time and whether or not the matter relates to the affairs of the company at the time the notice is given. The standing notice may be given before the interest becomes a material personal interest. Each director is responsible for promptly updating the information contained in a standing notice it provides to the company.

4. General law – Conflicts of interest

- a) At general law, directors have a fiduciary duty to avoid conflicts of interest. It is an established principle that directors of a company must not, in any matter falling within the scope of their service, have a personal interest or inconsistent engagement with a third party, except with the company's fully informed consent (often referred to as the Conflict Rule).
- b) Amongst many of the general principles that have been developed by the Courts in respect of the Conflict Rule, in certain circumstances, mere disclosure of a conflict between interest and duty and abstaining from voting on the matter is insufficient to satisfy a director's fiduciary obligations. Disclosure is generally the minimum requirement, however, in certain circumstances, a positive duty to protect the interests of the company by, for instance, taking steps to prevent a transaction from going ahead, may lie with the directors.

5. Common form of conflict - use of information by nominee directors

- a) A common situation in which a conflict may arise is where a nominee director acquires information as a result of the nominee's position as a director that the nominee knows will be of interest to the nominating company. The conflict in this situation includes:
 - i) a duty of confidentiality owed to the company of which it is a director; and
 - ii) a commercial desire to communicate knowledge acquired to the nominating company as a result of his or her position as a nominee.
- b) As a basic principle, the duty of confidentiality owed to the company in paragraph 5(a)(i) of this annexure is greater than any duty owed to the nominating company.
- c) Consequently, as a general rule, if a director acquires any information in his or her capacity as director of a company (which is not otherwise publicly available), the director cannot communicate that information to the nominating company. To do so would potentially breach a number of directors' duties, including the common law duties to act honestly and to avoid conflicts of interest, and the statutory duties to act in good faith, not to misuse position, and not to misuse information (refer to sections 181 to 184 of the Corporations Act).

6. Nominee Directors

- a) From time to time there may be Directors on the Board who are nominated representatives of shareholders of the Company. If the Board is required to consider a matter which involves, or affects the interests of, a shareholder, any involvement in the Board's consideration of that matter by a Director who is the nominated representative of that shareholder may give rise to a conflict for that Director (for instance, as contemplated in paragraph 5 of this annexure).

- b) In those circumstances, the procedure set out in paragraph 2.2 of the protocols must be adopted for the purposes of making a determination as to whether the Director's involvement in the Board's consideration of the matter would give rise to a conflict.
- c) If it is determined that the Director's involvement in the Board's consideration of the matter would give rise to a conflict, that Director must not:
 - i) be provided with any information relating to that matter;
 - ii) participate in any discussions regarding that matter; and
 - iii) take part in any decision-making process in relation to that matter.
- d) In addition, if that Director acquires any information about the matter, he or she must not, without the consent of the Board, disclose any of that information to the shareholder he or she represents nor attend any discussions or negotiations in relation to the matter between the Company on the one hand and that shareholder.
